Last Meeting: Our last meeting was on November 14th at the University of Illinois Extension Office. Three people were in attendance. The program was watching a video titled “The Story of Horicon Marsh”. It was interesting.

Next Meeting: The meeting will be Sunday, January 9, 2011. We will be back to the Extension Office basement at the corner of Rte 23 and Dayton Roads in North Ottawa. The meeting will begin at 2:00 pm. The plan is to set up the programs for the year. Please bring all of your ideas and join in the planning for the year. We have been missing people at the meetings and if it is because of the types of programs please bring forth your input.

Things to consider for the year:

Types of programs: topics, day of the week and time, distance to travel

Do you want another plant sale?

We also need to have a nominating team for election of officers.

Donations?: ECO-Meet, Extension, ??

Hope to see you at the meeting and bring a friend. If you have any questions, please contact Diana Rod at 815-539-7237 or prairie_nag@yahoo.com. If you are running late or are lost you may call my cell at 815-343-3544

I have the following dates reserved for meetings at the Extension Office for future meetings.
